

Tables

Koniko

Koniko works by addition in the idea of its designer, Matteo Zorzenoni. It has an almost monolithic volume with a conical shape and a large table top in stoneware, wood or lacquered glass.

CENTRAL BASE

Koniko is a table with a central wooden base, available in a variety of finishes, from wood veneers that bring out the original material to lacquered ones in a wide range of matt, cement or metallic finishes.

VARIOUS MEASURES FOR THE PLAN

The slim fixed top of the Koniko table is available in different sizes, both in length and width, so that it is easy to fit into very different contexts. The top can be made like the base in veneer or lacquered wood, with the same or a contrasting finish, or in stoneware or lacquered glass.

KONIKO AND LE MANS

Koniko combined with the Le Mans chair, designed again by designer Matteo Zorzenoni, creates a particularly elegant and balanced ensemble.

FINISHES

How majestic do you want to make your Koniko table? Much will depend on the finishes you choose. Find out about them now.
